

Residential Staff Notification Requirements for Crimes & Incidents

Clery Act, CalEd, and Title IX

If anyone is in danger or in need of emergency assistance

CALL 9-1-1

(or 9-9-1-1 from a campus phone)

Otherwise, manage immediate and ongoing care by engaging support resources quickly:

For Graduate Matters

Page the GLO Dean
650-723-8222 (Pager ID 25085) or
Text a GLO Dean with your name and issue at 25805@pageme.stanford.edu

Note: An emergency call to 911 will fulfill Clery compliance requirements but not Title IX obligations.

With as much care and consideration as possible, find out when and where the incident occurred, and obtain enough detail to understand what took place and who was involved. If a crime has been alleged, be sure to ask the victim if they would like to call the police to consult or have an officer respond to investigate and create a police report.

Consider your notification responsibilities, understanding that you may have to report to more than one office. Note that multiple types of crime or prohibited conduct can take place in a single event. All crimes and violations should be reported.

If no emergency assistance is needed

Be sure to complete all of the following compliance notifications that are applicable:
